Camp Figtree offers six beautifully appointed room categories, each an elegant base for exploring the wild beauty of one of South Africa's most renowned game reserves, The Addo Elephant National Park. Our lodge leaves a light footprint on the land while offering premium lodging, creating the perfect retreat for those seeking tranquility in the heart of the African wilderness.

Property highlights

Camp Figtree is a place where luxury meets authenticity, with cuisine and hospitality as memorable as the landscape. In this private haven, you'll find warmth, a sense of place, and unspoiled nature. Enjoy exceptional cuisine, genuine hospitality, and luxurious accommodation.

Just an hour and a half from Port Elizabeth, you'll enter Addo and wind your way through the valley, climbing into the mountains until the outside world feels far away. The noise fades, replaced by birdsong, rustling leaves, and the calm of being hidden beneath ancient wild fig trees on the Zuurberg mountaintop.

Perched high above the landscape, our lodge offers a rare perspective and a deeper connection to nature. Fully off-the-grid, we draw power from the sun and water from a natural mountain spring, creating an eco-conscious escape that's both secluded and unforgettable.
